

An invitation to District of Columbia Early Childhood Development Stakeholders

The District of Columbia Early Childhood Advisory Council (ECAC) established by Mayor Adrian M. Fenty in May 2010 will meet to review the three-year strategic plan to improve coordination and collaboration among early childhood education programs and services.

The ECAC serves as the official state advisory council on early childhood education for children from birth to school entry.

Please join us to:

- Learn the purpose and mandate of ECAC
- Review and comment on the ECAC Three-Year Strategic Plan
- Share your views on early childhood development priorities

When: Thursday, July 8, 2010, 10:00am – 12:00pm

Where: Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Library
901 G Street, NW, A5 Auditorium
Washington, DC
Metro: Gallery Place/Chinatown Metro Station which serves the Red, Green, and Yellow lines. (Use 9th Street exit to reach the library)

RSVP: To Quameice Harris by July 5, 2010. Please indicate if you need interpreter services or other special accommodation:
Quameice.Harris@dc.gov or 202-727-1839.

To view the ECAC draft three-year strategic plan, please visit the Division of Early Childhood Education's web page at www.osse.dc.gov.